

[\[back to Help Center \]](#)

Logging In

Use this function to:

Log in to the Delphion website to perform searches, review the status of your account, and place orders.

These instructions assume that you are a registered user with a User Name and a Password. If you are not a registered user, please see Registration and Subscription help for assistance with registration.

- How to log in to the Delphion website from the homepage
- How to log in to the Delphion website from all other pages on the site
- Using Auto Log In

Note: According to the terms of Delphion user agreements, each user must have a separate user ID. If you need to purchase additional user IDs for your organization, please call 1.800.411.4811 (1.630.799.0600 International) or submit an inquiry through this convenient email form.

How to log in to the Delphion website from the homepage:

1. On the Delphion website homepage, enter your User Name and Password in the boxes provided.
2. Click LOG IN to process your request.

You are now logged in to the Delphion website.

[\[back to top\]](#)

How to log in to the Delphion website from all other pages on the site:

1. On any page other than the Delphion website homepage, click Log In in the upper left of the page under the Delphion logo.
2. Delphion returns the Log In for Registered Users page.
3. Enter your User Name and Password in the boxes provided.
4. Optionally, check Remember My Password (this will enable Auto Log In).
5. Click Log In to process your request.

You are now logged in to the Delphion website.

[\[back to top\]](#)

Using Auto Log In:

Auto Log In saves your Password so that, on subsequent visits to the Delphion website, you will be automatically logged in and ready to do your research.

Do not enable this feature if you share your computer with other users.

Turn on Auto Log In by checking Remember My Password from any Log In area or by selecting Auto Log In on the Preferences page in the My Account area.

[\[back to top\]](#)
